A game of concentration

TRIBE TALK

ROW 1: Lisa Clamme, Cassy Johnson, Angie Beumer, Kelly Horn, Ruth Ann Jellison ROW 2: Chris Colpaert, Rob Hunt, Karin Hedges, Jerrilyn Morehous, Lea Ann Zimmerman, Mrs. Williams. Not pictured Carol Lingo

Mrs. Bentz gets the smoke rolling.

Mrs. Williams, heap swell tribal chieftain.

Squaws Carol and Kelly prepare to swap the scoop for wampum.

The rush begins with Carol, Rob, and Chris bartering their signals for five cents.

Chris and Rob scouting for the "bare facts".

Heapum satisfied tribe when the swap is complete.

The pleasure our "Chieftain nation" receives from "Tribe Talk" is the end result of a job well done by its mighty staff.

LIBRARY

"Ooh! What was that number?"

After seven years as librarian CLAIKE SMITH still enjoys working with the students at EAST JAY. Thanks to Mrs. Smith's expertise we benefit from a library that is both resourceful and efficient.

"Well, since the guys aren't around we might as well study."

"Where did you say that goes?"

Having a strong defense, improved backfield and tackling skills, good team spirit, and strong determination is how coaches MIKE SMITH (left) and RON STITH (right) described their team this year. They indicated a need to get more people involved, to get the game together earlier in the season, and a wish for a single regulation size football for all schools.

SEVENTH GRADE

Coaches GARY SMITH (top) and JOE FREEMAN (bottom) have enjoyed seeing their team work very hard and also its improvement this season. They especially enjoyed the game in which they were saved from defeat by a surprise interception. Both coaches would like to see more boys go out for football and to be able to have more speed on the team.

Lea Selvey could be called "Coach Jack of all trades" as we look into his past to see him not only teach Science but coaching football, basketball, baseball, and track. This year another trade was added to his list as he tried his hand at cross country. While he watched his crew improve he dreamed about what it would be like to have a more scenic course at East Jay for cross country, possibly around a lovely lake. And what a dream the season turned out to be as novice cross country coach Selvey engineered his team through an undefeated season with an East Jay award going to a female as "Runner of the Year." Mr. Selvey felt that the team was to be commended for its perseverance and hard work, with little recognition, bringing back many laurels to our East Jay tribe. East Jay can be proud of their c.c. team as well as its coach, Mr. Selvey.

1982 CHIEFS CROSS COUNTRY "RUNNER OF THE YEAR"

Sarah set a new school record, 2000 meters in 7 minutes and 32 seconds. Out running all of the girls and most of the boys against whom she competed. In every race she ran Sarah finished either first or second. Congratulations to Sarah Raunecker.

Having coached both tennis and cheerleaders Mr. Dave Gray has put an armlock on a different kind of sport this year. Wrestling, both highly physical and unnerving to "many a mother," has its advantages over several other sports, according to Mr. Gray, by offering each participant his own identity and individualism. To avoid serious accidents Mr. Gray feels that better scrutiny by the referees for illegal holds and pins could be a future improvement. The pleasures of coaching this year for coach Gray were getting off to a good start, winning a tournament, and the wins by pinning. The future of these East Jay scrappers has been positively influenced by the discipline and success gained this season from Coach Gray.

BASKETBALL

The challenge of teaching the fundamentals of basketball to his East Jay squad and watching their progress and development gives Lea Selvey the pleasure and satisfaction that most coaches can identify with. After coaching basketball for two years Mr. Selvey feels that the success of this season can be attributed to the talent and desire of his team. The pride and dedication that Mr. Selvey has invested in his team has been reflected in this year's success.

EIGHTH GRADE

An eight year veteran to East Jay basketball coach Dave Bergman has also coached cross country and track. The enthusiasm displayed by our East Jay athletes is one of the pleasures Mr. Bergman particularly enjoys. Along with a super year, eighth grade Chieftain basketball was the apex of the season "hey time." Mr. Bergman and his team have provided "Hoosier Maria" entertainment and pride once again to our Chieftain nation.

BASKETBALL

Coaching basketball for five years MARY CHIDDISTER enjoys seeing the girls improve as she works with them. The difference in the boys game when compared with the girls game is the amount of skill acquired by the boys who are trained much earlier than girls. Regardless coach Chiddister and her crew have had a very impressive season, one of which we can all be proud.

SEVENTH GRADE

Coch KELLY MOSER has enjoyed her coaching status for five years. She has been particularly happy with her girls improvements and their end results this season. If there could be any improvements it might be more concern for the girls game by the officials according to Mrs. Moser. Thanks go to the coach and her team for a great season.
